

Banking Information

Want to open your own bank account but don't know what you need? Looking for an automatic teller on campus? Check out the information below!

"May I open my own bank account in Starkville?"

Yes, you may if you are 18 or older! Banks throughout Starkville offer free accounts for students.

"Where do I go to open a checking account?"

These are just a few of the banks close to campus where you may open a checking account.

BancorpSouth - 400 University Drive - 662.323.9393

Cadence Bank - 301 West Main Street - 662.323.1341

Merchants & Farmers Bank - 315 University Drive - 662.323.3950

Regions Bank - 300 University Drive - 662.324.4831

"What should I take to the bank with me to open an account?"

Different banks require different things to open a checking account, so you should call the bank you want to use and ask what you should bring with you to open your account.

To open an account with BancorpSouth, you will need your MSU ID, your passport, your telephone number, your mailing address, and a minimum $50.00 deposit.

To open an account with Cadence Bank, you will need your MSU ID, your passport, your telephone number, your mailing address, and a minimum $50.00 deposit.

Also, Cadence Bank requires proof of residence for 3 months (this could be your utility bill or an apartment lease). If you are staying at MSU for fewer than 3 months, talk to Alexis for more information.

"May I access my checking account online?"

Again, different banks offer different online banking services.

With BancorpSouth, you may receive free monthly bank statements via your email, but you may only use the online banking system if you have a Social Security number.

With Cadence Bank, you may receive free monthly bank statements via your email and use their online banking system. No Social Security number is needed.

"Are there automatic teller machines on campus?"

Yes! There are a variety of ATMs located next to the food court in the Colvard Student Union.

The Union is open 7 days a week from 6:30am to 10:00pm. Note: BancorpSouth does NOT have an ATM on campus.
