

Computer Labs on Campus

Need to use a computer on campus? Check out the information on this page to see where and when you can access a computer!

“Are there computers on campus I can use for free?”

Yes! There are a number of computer labs located across campus, and all you need to access them is your student ID card, your NetID, and your NetID password.
(See Alexis if you don't know your Net ID or password.)

“What if it's late at night, and I need to use a computer?”

Computer labs on campus keep various hours of operation at various times of the year, and some labs are used by classes at certain times each day. Remember, too, that many labs close on University holidays.
