

MSU Libraries

For books, computer programs, newspapers, journal articles, study rooms, and so much more, MSU Libraries is here to help you!

“Where are the Libraries located on campus?”

There are three branches of MSU Libraries here on the Starkville campus:

Mitchell Memorial Library
395 Hardy Road

MSU Libraries - Architecture Branch
Giles Hall on Barr Avenue

MSU Libraries - Vet Med Branch
240 Wise Center Drive

“May I check out books at the Libraries?”

Yes, you may! Just bring your MSU ID to Mitchell Memorial Library’s Access Services Department on the 2nd floor, and a staff member will be sure you are registered to check out books. Their phone number is 662-325-7668.

“What else can I do at the Libraries?”

There is a lot more to do than simply check out books!

Meet with a librarian and get help with your research papers and projects (with your teachers’ approval!) in the Reference Department on the 2nd floor. Their phone number is 662-325-7667.

Use scanners and other technology in the Instructional Medical Center on the 2nd floor.
Their phone number is 662-325-7676.

Access the Internet, check your email, and work on projects in the Computer Commons on the 2nd floor.
Their phone number is 662-325-8119.

Read through many newspapers - both national and international - in Current Journals on the 2nd floor.
Their phone number is 662-325-3819.

Experience musical instruments, recordings, and sheet music from the early 1900s in the Charles H. Templeton, Sr. Music Museum on the 4th floor. Their phone number is 662-325-6634.

“When are the Libraries open?”

Different branches and different services in the Libraries are open different hours.

Check out <http://library.msstate.edu/aboutus/hours.asp> to see the Libraries’ hours, or call 662-325-8760.
